

In our opinion, the market relations are the provision of our core business service based on our defined principles, cooperation with our customers, suppliers and partners, cooperation with researchers and active position in defining and implementing waste policy.

We implement a transparent and open management, open and accessible communication with all our stakeholders.